Office Memorandum

Guidelines for quicker disbursal of cash incentive to medal winners and their coaches in international sports events covered under ACTC

In pursuance to the circular no. K-15011/56/2024-SP-IV dated 31.01.2025 issued by Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports (MYAS) pertaining to the revision of scheme of cash incentives, the following instructions are being issued for the medal winners and their coaches in international events covered under the ACTC funding:

Registration on NSRS on a one-time basis

- I. Each athlete and their coaches must register on NSRS and update (verify and Aadhaar-link) their communication, address, bank account and other details.
- II. After the successful competition of the step – I above, each athlete is required to link his/her coaches along with their levels, namely, grassroot, development and elite.

Upon winning medal in international competitions covered under the ACTC

- III. Upon winning medal in international competitions covered under the ACTC funding, the cash incentive to athlete shall be processed by the SAI/MYAS on the basis of verified information filled by athlete in step – I & 2 above.
- IV. However, in order to process the cash incentive for coaches, the athlete will receive a communication on their registered phone number and email regarding the nomination of their coaches for cash incentive. In so far as the nomination of coaches is concerned, the applicant athlete must nominate their coaches from the list of already linked and verified coaches (as mentioned in step – II) within 7 (Seven) days of receiving this communication.

2. The detailed manual for this is available at:

<https://nsrs.kheloindia.gov.in/#/cash-award>

3. The list of such competitions shall be published on MYAS/SAI/National Sports Repository System (NSRS) portal and also reflect on the dashboard of the athletes registered on the NSRS. Additionally, the status of the cash incentive disbursement for these competitions shall be available on the dashboard of the athlete and their nominated coaches upon initiation of the application.

4. If any athlete encounters any difficulties/challenges during the above-mentioned process or fails to complete the process in the stipulated time-period, he/she may submit their applications using manual mode through DBT-MIS Portal of MYAS (<http://dbtyas-sports.gov.in>) within six months from the conclusion of the respective event.

5. In case of any queries or issues faced during the registration/nomination process, the following may be contacted:
